A high-angle architectural rendering of the Riviera residential development in Meydan, Dubai. The image shows a wide, modern boulevard lined with contemporary high-rise apartment buildings. On the left, a building features prominent cantilevered balconies with glass railings. In the foreground, a rooftop terrace area is visible with several white patio umbrellas. The street is paved and has a few cars driving. In the background, the iconic Yas Viceroy Hotel with its distinctive white canopy is visible, along with other skyscrapers under a clear blue sky.
