WELCOME TO THE 28TH RUNNING OF DUBAI WORLD CUP

With a prize purse of US$30.5m up for grabs on the big day, the 28th running of the Dubai World Cup will feature some of the best-known names in horseracing from all over the world.

The event will be staged at Meydan Racecourse, a unique, state-of-the-art facility designed to provide a backdrop that matches the grandeur of world-class horseracing.

Our hospitality facilities are positioned around the two racetracks, offering racegoers the opportunity to watch this amazing spectacle in a setting of unparalleled luxury and comfort.

Dubai World Cup is the highlight of the city's sporting and social calendar and a fitting event to showcase an activity that has long been known as the 'Sport of Kings'.

As well as offering the ultimate horseracing experience, the Dubai World Cup provides guests with elite trackside glamour and sophistication.

We hope you have a memorable day.

TOP TIPS:

Participants entering the Style Stakes competition should be aware the judges are looking for style, originality and attention to detail as well as appropriateness of the outfit for a race day.

Here are some useful tips about what the judges are looking for:

- Hats/fascinators for ladies
- Appropriateness of the outfit for races
- Interpretation of current trends
- Suitability of outfit on the wearer
- Style and originality
- Attention to detail
- Grooming, posture and demeanour
- Coordination of ensemble
- Entrants must be 18 years of age and above

The following list, while not exhaustive, would be considered inappropriate:

- Revealing attire, i.e., miniskirts, short dresses, plunging necklines, bare midriff, or clothing made of see-through fabrics
- Evening gowns
- Late arrival
- Contestants going on stage wearing sunglasses
- Contestants younger than 18 years of age

FLY BETTER TO AN EXPANDED EMIRATES NETWORK

Emirates has recently announced expansion to new destinations and is bringing back popular points on its network in 2024. The airline will be adding here captivating cities to its network including Bogotá, Phnom Penh, and Adelaide.

Bogotá, Colombia

Emirates will introduce a daily service to Bogotá via Miami, forging new bridges between the Middle East and South America. Starting 3 June, the new service via Miami caters to the increasing demand for seamless travel between Colombia, the UAE, and beyond. Customers can expect unparalleled comfort and luxury across all three classes on the Boeing 777, in addition to raising the bar for premium services on the Bogota-Miami route.

Bogota is where the past and present come together in a harmonious fusion. The city offers some of the best art, culture and local food that is widely recognized as some of the best in Latin America. Travelers can wander around the historic area of La Candelaria and discover incredible street murals and cobbled streets of colourful Spanish colonial buildings. Buskers fill the air with music and performers entertain the crowds in Plaza de Bolívar, where it is easy to find many of the main attractions. The city's cultural diversity, coupled with its dynamic environment, makes it an enticing destination for new ventures.

Phnom Penh, Cambodia

Emirates will reinstate its service to Phnom Penh from 1 May. The service will be operated with a three-class Boeing 777-300ER aircraft. Flights to Cambodia land at Phnom Penh International Airport with a stop in Singapore, making it a convenient trip for businesspeople and leisure seekers alike. Cambodia's capital city sits on the bank of three rivers – the Mekong, the Bassac and the Tonlé Sap. For many people it's the gateway to the beaches of the southern coast and the fascinating temple complex of Angkor Wat in Siem Reap.

Travelers can explore Phnom Penh's historical and architectural marvels like the Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda, with beautiful ornate roofs and a floor of gleaming silver. It houses an abundance of Khmer cultural treasures and numerous Buddha statues, including ones in emerald and solid gold. Phnom Penh, bursting with cultural treasures and contemporary marvels, presents an array of experiences for discerning travelers.

Adelaide, Australia

Emirates will strengthen its link with Australia with the start of daily flights to Adelaide starting 28 October. The service will operate on the Boeing 777-200LR with 38 Business Class seats alongside 264 seats in Economy Class. Adelaide is the ultimate destination for lovers of food, cultural events and entertainment. Travelers can explore hidden laneways bursting with boutique bars and intimate restaurants and discover flavors from across the globe at the Adelaide Central Markets.

Emirates customers venturing to Adelaide can enjoy a curated selection of regional delights and entertainment options, connecting them to the diverse offerings of South Australia. Consistently ranked as one of Australia's most liveable cities, Adelaide's pristine beaches and laid-back attitude won't disappoint.

INTRODUCING THE MINI DOLCEVITA: THE OFFICIAL WATCH OF THE DUBAI WORLD CUP & LONGINES DUBAI SHEEMA CLASSIC

ELEGANCE IN THE SMALLEST DETAIL.

The Dubai World Cup & Longines Dubai Sheema Classic is the perfect occasion to showcase the Mini DolceVita. With its discreet profile, classic styling and aesthetic variations that are at once timely and timeless, this masterpiece exquisitely expresses, in equal parts, Longines' quiet luxury and contemporary elegance.

A MINI WATCH, A LARGE VARIETY.

The Mini DolceVita has a significant lineage: it was inspired by a Longines legend created in 1927 and, of course, the original DolceVita family from 1997. That collection triggered the slogan "Elegance is an attitude", and the Mini DolceVita updates the story for a whole new generation.

The Mini DolceVita watches have been created in an impressive range of color options and configurations. The new references feature 21.50mm x 29mm stainless steel cases and are available with or without diamond settings.

Built on a rich heritage, these stunning jewel watches are bound to resonate with dynamic, spirited women drawn to breathtaking timepieces that perfectly complement any styling choice.
